New dog boarding facility in Vilna

By Irene van der Kloet

In case no one had noticed: the world is travelling again. Reports of congested airports come from all over the world. Travelling dog owners need to take their dogs with them or bring them to a trusted friend or kennel. Recently, a new opportunity in the Vilna area has opened for dog owners to board their dogs. Longrange boarding kennels are run by Carol, her husband Clayton and sons Harry and Dylan. This started with their plan to breed Newfoundland dogs once they retired. Then in 2021, they purchased 37 acres near Vilna. With so much land, they decided to not only breed Newfoundland dogs but also build a boarding kennel. "We've only just opened; the support and people have been amazing," Carol says. "This year, we are boarding dogs only, next year, we'll start boarding cats as well. We will have to build special compartments for that". They currently have seven kennels; for big dogs or multiple dogs, there are runs where the dogs can go out and run around. There are also three big pens where dogs can run around. "We let them out three times a day. If one dog doesn't like another, he can be in a separate pen and still run around," Carol explains. "We don't like locking dogs up too long because they get depressed." They have taken many training courses about different breeds, their temperament and personalities to be well prepared. They are now nearly booked up for July and are taking bookings for August, so business is going well. Clients come from Cold Lake, Edmonton, so even from further away, people find them. "I try to treat a dog like I treat my own, so when it's in a pen, I try to bring it out," Carol adds. What makes them unique is that they are quite family orientated and that the dogs have a good time there.

"Many reviews about kennels say it was okay, but we don't want okay. We want to hear that it was fantastic because the dog had a wonderful time", Carol comments. She contacts clients at least once a day, letting them know how it's going, and will continue to do so once she has more boarders, as she wants to keep clients happy. Their prices are slightly lower than other kennels, and they can offer discounts to seniors or longer-term boarders. For details, please contact Longrange Kennels in Vilna at 587-440-0321. They also have a Facebook page.

At Longrange Kennels the owners give dogs lots of time to socialize and play outside.

Vilna celebrates

Vilna is a memorable gem found in Treaty 6 territory, tucked on the side of Highway 28, Northeast of Edmonton. The village is home to approximately 300 residents and provides services to the surrounding farms, First Nations communities, and seasonal visitors. This August, we will be celebrating several centennial and one bicentennial milestone during the annual Boomtown Days Fair on August 19-21, 2022. The Village, School, and Pool Hall are all celebrating 100 years, while the Agricultural Society is the young whippersnapper celebrating 50 years of association!

Families started moving into Vilna in 1919 with the railroad, though the village's roots were originally approximately 2 miles east, officially incorporated in 1923. If you can believe it, flooding of main street has been recorded since 1920 (inside joke)! The first buildings in town included a general store, hardware store, bank, butcher shop, grain elevators, sawmill, and of course, the Dance and Pool Hall. The first hospital was built shortly after, along with a creamery and the Vilna Hotel, among others.

The talk of the town in the late 1960s was a meteor airburst, which was well recorded and, unbelievably, tiny meteor fragments were discovered in the snow in 1967. Ironically, this occurred shortly after one of our neighbouring communities constructed its UFO landing pad monument. Cue Twilight Zone music

The World's Largest Mushroom monument was built in 1993, boasting three mushrooms, the largest standing 20 feet high and 15 feet across. Many people regularly come through to pose next to the giant fungi, take a break at the playground or practice flips and ollies at the skateboard park.

The railroad was removed in 2000 and has since become the Iron Horse Trail. A multi-use system that connects Waskatenau to Cold Lake, bringing many visitors through the village to stretch their legs down our Historic Main Street for a washroom break, picnic, or amenities from one of our welcoming business owners.

The Main Street Project restored or enhanced over 20 buildings and boardwalk on main street, construction beginning in 2000 until 2006 to rejuvenate our boomtown imagery. Some renovated businesses include D&E Grocery, Carol's (now Cyr's) Gifts, and the Pharmacy.

Our quaint community receives praise and adoration from visitors and past and present residents, continuing to provide the tight-knit, neighbourly lifestyle many families long for.

The village will celebrate 100 years with different events throughout the Fair weekend. What is currently known as the picnic area on the north end of main street will be distinguished as our Centennial Park, with a ground-breaking ceremony at 4:00 pm. A Show & Shine featuring autos of all models, including antiques and tractors, will be on presentation Sunday afternoon on main street, serenaded by the musical talents of the Rockin' Erbs.

The Town of Redwater hosted its very successful ice cream day on July 7 at the Town office.

Word-on-the-Block

The Lion's Club was busy serving free hot dogs on July 7 in support of the "Word-on-the-Block" summer block party.

By Myrina Carter

On July 7, the Redwater Library hosted its annual "Word-on-the-Block" kick-off to the summer block party. With the start of the summer reading program, the community of Redwater was invited to join in on activities such as the used book sale, crafts, and a petting zoo from the local company, Finnigan Farms.

The block party partnered with the Town of Redwater, the Redwater Lions Club, Sturgeon County, and Redwater

Public Works. The town office was lined up with many families and patrons waiting while the staff was busy scooping ice cream. The Redwater Lions Club handed out free hotdogs for the afternoon of fun. Sturgeon County and Redwater Public works were busy pulling out Public Work vehicles and a fire truck for all to view.

Library Director Alicea Paszek said "The purpose of this event is to bring people to the library and to the Town Office to check out the services we offer and to celebrate the beginning of the summer! Usually, the Word-on-the-Block party happens annually, but because of Covid restrictions, this is the first one since 2019. In 2019 we had over 300 visits to the library during our Word-on-the-Block celebration!"

The community was excited over all the activities, and the petting zoo from Finnigan Farms was an absolute hit, including ponies, goats, pot-bellied pigs and more.

Find your Village

By Myrina Carter

Find your Village was created for community members to have conversations, connection and enjoy fun activities. The goal is to provide a space for people to come build relationships and reduce isolation within the communities. A monthly event that creates a safe place for any age to enjoy things such as bingo, crafts, planting, or getting together to have coffee. New events are in the works for this fall.

After such great success with Find your Village throughout the year, SPS Disability Services and Redwater HYPE members collaborated to create and fund Find your Village -Summer Edition; a program that quickly filled and people will enjoy creating summer memories, have fun, and make connections through the counties. For those who sign up, they get to experience planned events at the Jurassic Forest and the Valley Zoo.

Helen with SPS Disability Services said, "We hope everyone will feel supported and valued while connecting with other caring community members!"

If you have any further questions about what Find your Village represents and offers, you can check out the Facebook pages or Contact Helen Lawrence with SPS Disability Services at 780-934-0609.
