Flu season hits the Smoky Lake area hard, disrupts fundraising event

By Irene van der Kloet

Flu season is here, and it is going around hard in Smoky Lake and the surrounding area. Multiple flu bugs – officially referred to as influenza – seem to be keeping people sick at home, whetherit is Covid or not. There has been an increase of activities in the region lately, starting with the Truth and Reconciliation event on September 30, the Pumpkin Fair on October 1st, and of course, Thanksgiving on October 8. Next, the Smoky Lake Ag Society celebrated its 50th anniversary on October 29th. On that same day, Warspite celebrated Halloween with a party in the community hall. On the actual Halloween day, October 31st, children were going around the community for trick or treat. All those events, which occured during the Covid pandemic have been referred to as "super spreader" events, may have contributed to a larger number of people being sick than normally would be the case this time of the year, meaning that flu season has started early. It is undetermined if the bugs are all Covid related, as symptoms do not all align with Covid symptoms, and people get sick and test negative at the same time. H.A. Kostash school has been hit hard with 100 pupils sick; this was reason the for Alberta Health Services to send a notice home to the parents describing the symptoms and providing recommendations to keep sick children home until they are free of fever for 24 hours (without fever-reducing medication) and feel well enough to attend school again. With children not attending school during the fall break (Nov 7-11), it may help them get through this flu wave. Other locations and events are affected as well. On November 7th, the Smoky Lake County office was closed due to a large number of sick employees. The question is now, what the effect of these respiratory diseases may be on events planned. The Smoky Lake Twinning committee has cancelled the Twinning Fundraiser event on November 18, an event to support Kosiv in Ukraine, where they are entering winter and supplies are down to the very minimum. However, the silent auction will take place as scheduled. A local and Métis Christmas market at Métis Crossing is scheduled for November 19, and an Indigenous Christmas market at Métis Crossing on December 3 and 4. The Kinette Club is planning their annual Angel Tree Toy Drive on November 24th. Alberta Health recommend Services that people get immunized against influenza, and because the virus constantly mutates. a new immunization is recommended each fall. Particularly those who are immunocompromised are advised to take the vaccine as symptoms may hit them harder.

Smoky Lake Cornhole Club

By Myrina Carter

A new club has been created in the community of Smoky Lake: the Cornhole Club, which was started by husbandand-wife duo Ron and Cheryl Semeniuk with the help of close friends Jason and Erica from Andrew, Ab. The first night of club play was on October 27, held at the Ukrainian National Hall at 107 Willow Creek Street in Smoky Lake.

Ron Semeniuk said, "We want to provide a venue that all skill levels can attend to socialize, meet new people, develop their game, and have some friendly competition. This is a game anyone can play; the club will include people from all walks of life. Some sports and games are only meant for a certain type of person and level of skill to play. Cornhole, on the other hand, is made for everyone!"

The club allows anyone 14 and up to join, at any skill level, including people new to the sport, recreational players, and competitive players. If enough members join the club, game night will be hosted weekly on Thursdays at the Ukrainian National Hall. The Cornhole Club also has no yearly fee but charges ten dollars per night per person, and the price includes using boards and bags. The club is offered to any patron who wants to join, not only in Smoky Lake but to anyone willing to travel and who likes to play cornhole.

Ron Semeniuk said, "People interested can join our Facebook page, Smoky Lake Cornhole, to register weekly. This allows us to plan for the appropriate amount of equipment to bring and set up. For people not on social media, there will be group messaging set up so they can also register that way. We look forward to getting to know anyone who decides to join and share a mutual love for the fun game of cornhole!"

For new players interested in joining or with questions, reach out on Facebook at Smoky Lake Cornhole or contact Ron Semeniuk at 780-554-3911.

Radway Agricultural Society hosts Ukrainian fundraiser

By Myrina Carter

On the fifth of November, the Radway Agricultural Society hosted a fundraiser for the Ukraine Relief Effort. The evening began at 5:00 p.m. at 5108 51 Street. It included the live band, Millenia, and entertainment from Edmonton's Veselka Ukrainian Dancers, along with a delicious Ukrainian meal prepared by the ladies of the Radway Agricultural Society for guests who purchased tickets.

Neil Halun, a RAS member, said, "We were hoping to do 300-400 in ticket sales, but the total purchased was 228, which was still a great turnout! We are proud to say we raised $1,140 to go towards Ukraine Relief Effort. We checked with the former premier of Alberta, Ed Stelmach, to ensure

A traditional Ukrainian meal was prepared and served by members of the Radway Agricultural Society for everyone who attended. Bellies were full and ready for the planned show. The entertainment of the evening had the crowds cheering and dancing throughout the night. The Veselka Ukrainian Dancers performed a beautiful traditional Ukrainian dance performance from Edmonton, AB. Attendees enjoyed the perfect display of dances like the hopak, round dance, and polka. Millenia is a band whose primary mission is to preserve and advance Canadian Ukrainian music, and it played at the fundraiser with a great modern progressive style. Millenia had everyone off their seats until 1:00 am in spirit of the evening and celebrating the fun night

Halun said, "The food was fantastic, an amazing performance by the Veselka Ukrainian Dance group, and Millenia played great music that had guests dancing all night long! A huge thank you to all the volunteers for setting up, cooking, bartending, and cleaning up! Also, a thank you to all our organizers for promoting and selling tickets!"
