Flying start for Black Cat's Cauldron Tea & Herb House in Vilna

By Irene van der Kloet

In Vilna, the historic main street with buildings that have a story or two to tell stands out. Amid these landmark buildings, a new business opened recently:

The Black Cat's Cauldron Tea & Herb House, owned and run by Kathy Underwood. "I moved to Vilna in November; I bought this and the house next door. I live next door", Kathy says. She wanted to buy a farm but could not do the work anymore; it was too hard physically. "I changed my criteria of what I was looking for, and then this place popped up immediately. And I thought to myself: I can open a store; I am a registered herbalist and am an excellent cook. Maybe I can incorporate a little of that. Everyone was thrilled with the idea of a tea house, so that's what I did. I

Every month, the Smoky Lake Lions Club holds a club meeting. This month, the meeting was attended by District Governor Suzanne Leshchyshyn and her husband, Dave. Suzanne spoke about the work of Lions clubs in her district, which stretches from Red Deer to the Northwest Territories (Yellowknife) and up to the east and west provincial borders, with some clubs in northwest B.C. also being part of her district. She plans on visiting all clubs in her year as District Governor, which means 89 visits in a year. Lions International holds conferences throughout the year across the world. Suzanne emphasized the importance of attending a conference - one coming up in Camrose on January 27 - 28, for networking and learning. There is so much to learn in the world of Lions, and there is even a Lions University where one can earn a bachelor's

H.A. Kostash School news

The Grade 4 students of H. A. Kostash School in Smoky Lake truly exemplified the power of joy and singing! They spent their day recently visiting local seniors and performing for them, bringing smiles and laughter to everyone's faces. It is through these special moments that we can come together as a community, and it is our younger generations that have reminded us of what brings us all joy. The school staff and students put in a lot of hard work and effort to make this moment possible, and it truly made a difference in people's lives.

or master's degree, or even a doctorate, in Lionism. Smoky Lake Lions Club has had seven new members in the past year, and whereas some of these members have already been inducted, other, more recent members have not. In front of their club, the new members, Galia Alexander and Christopher Wolanski, pledged allegiance to the Lions Club and Lionism (a term for the spirit of serving communities). Three other members, Larry Saunders, Ben Evans and Maggie McGill, could not attend this event and will be inducted later. The induction is a festive event and an important moment for the member, who can now call themselves a Lion. "Lion" does not only refer to the wild animal with the beautiful mane; it is an acronym for Liberty, Intelligence, Our Nation's Safety. Lions serve these values. Suzanne then awarded eight Lions with long-term membership recognitions: Gerald Babichuk, Clarke Pickett, Delmor Huchulak, Dave and Kathleen Dalby, Brenda Dalby-Adamson, Lorrie Verspeelt, and Steve Zarusky. Dave Leshchyshyn's turn was to inform the club about developments in the guide dogs field, in which he is closely involved. He spoke about the challenges facing dog trainers and the dogs themselves and how each dog needs to be trained for a specific purpose. The most well-known guide dogs are probably those that guide vision-impaired people, but some dogs warn their owners of an epileptic episode or support a person with autism. It takes time, patience and much money and care to get these dogs to the point where they can function. Then, not every dog matches every person, so sometimes it takes time for a person to find the dog that matches their personality. The Smoky Lake Lions Club is growing and is inviting new members to join the club and support the community. Anyone interested in joining the Smoky Lake Lions can contact the President, Dennis Jonker, at 780-777-2709 or go to Pappy's.

SUDOKU CROSSWORDS

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

 opened December 1st, my kitchen was certified December 21st, and I've been steady ever since," Kathy proudly explains. "The community has been very accepting of what I am doing. Everything I need, I have here. I work with the local restaurant (Por-ky's), and we sometimes share ingredients. I make everything from scratch. I only have one menu every day; that's what it is. On Fridays, I always make cinnamon buns. People like my organic tea, and I also sell tea in tins. In December, when it was so cold, everyone was waiting until I got the kitchen going and then I was swamped. The town is nice, and the people have been very supportive." Not only does she have the bakery and lunchroom, but she also sells jewellery, organic tea, crystals, candles and metaphysical supplies, and she reads cards. Local people supply her with jewellery; she is big on buying locally and tries to stick to that. The name is a play on what she has and her name (her friends call her Kat). Kathy hasn't always been a store owner. She has an interesting bio: she was trucking for forty-two years and has seen significant parts of Canada and the U.S. Then she had a store in Whitecourt that fell apart during the pandemic. These days, she teaches herbal workshops and does herb walks. "The herbal workshops are about how to use herbs. Herb walks are more about identification. We tend to use common herbs, but Alberta has a wealth of local native prairie herbs that can heal almost everything, and most people don't even realize that. My herb garden was close to two acres at the farm, and I grew about three hundred medicinal plants there. I use my herbs and other spices while cooking; I don't use salt." The tea and herb house is open on Saturdays and has a patio on the side, which will be available in the summer. Opening hours are Tuesday to Saturday, 11 to 5.
