After a long closure, but well worth the wait, Noreen Leite re-opened her store located on Main Street in Redwater, with more than just the attic. One of her primary objectives was to restore a welcoming and cozy ambiance within the establishment. Much thanks go to Ravi Gill, Terragold Land Development, she said for making that possible. Now I have that old fashioned coffee bar, where friends can come sit, have a beverage and pastry for under $5. Many thanks as well go to the Trotter family for all their hard work and many, many hours put in to help make my store a success. Thank you all! I miss the old ways a lot where we could do a little shopping and then sit, visit each other, meet new people, have some laughs, greet the next person that comes in, new to us at the time, but not anymore! Everyone was included. A warm environment. Noreen

History through the community

By Brandie Majeau
Thorhild County, in partnership with Thorhild Museum, hosted its annual Thorhild County History Tour on July 13. In early July, the history tour covered the southern areas of the county, and this follow-up tour covered the northern areas. Participants eagerly awaiting this second opportunity to take a step back into Thorhild County's rich past awoke early to greet the day and each other, and meander through the wealth of displays cultivated in Thorhild Museum.

areas such as Mopova, Abee and Tudor, Larry Hyrciw regaled them with a fountain of historic knowledge. He explained the significance that each stop held and drew them back to a time often forgotten. While the areas themselves stood still and silent, words of exciting events and bustling communities that once thrived with businesses, schools and churches wrapped themselves around the participants, drawing them back, years fading away as history unfolded itself once again before them.

From the museum, the guests boarded a tour bus and were launched into an enchanted day. Stopping at various

Smoky Lake Lions Club hosts swimming lessons

By Irene van der Kloet

For 50 years, the Smoky Lake Lions Club has been hosting swimming lessons at Hanmore Lake. This year, the lessons were held from July 17-21. These swimming lessons are for children ages 0-12, and there is always huge interest from the wider region. "There is more demand than we can meet, so we have to select," Lion Dennis Jonker, president of the Smoky Lake Lions Club and the swimming lesson organizer, says. "Our Lions Club funds these lessons; we only ask for a $10 registration fee. We are restricted in the number of children we can have here, first by the size of the lake and then by the number of instructors we can get.

Swimming lessons in a lake are entirely different from swimming lessons in a pool. The water varies in temperature and swimmers can't see the bottom. Photo courtesy of Brenda Adamson.

So we prioritize children from the Smoky Lake area, which fills up the classes quickly." This year, organizing these lessons was a little more challenging because the Red Cross, which always provided the report cards and the necessary documentation and licensed the instructors, is no longer doing that. For the first year, the Lions Club had to work with the Lifesaving Society out of Edmonton. "We went to the Lifesaving Society to discuss the procedures. The report cards and the ribbons have changed. Instructors must now be licensed through them, so there was a lot of change. And we had to find new instructors. The Lifesaving Society has been quite helpful in supplying the necessary information and getting us started, and in the end, it all worked out." The Lions Club used its Facebook page and existing contacts to find instructors. They were happy to find four instructors. Registration started on July 16, and though the cut-off was 120, 131 children were registered. Unfortunately, on the first day, it rained, it was too cold, and several children opted out of the lessons, so they were back around the original 120 children. The lessons are given playfully, as children learn best through play. The rest of the week, everything went smoothly; everyone could successfully complete their lessons on Friday. Happy parents and happy children. The more children learn to swim, the more lives can be saved.

a fantastic public speaker. His expertise in Thorhild County history combined with those traits left the tour group well-informed and entertained. Tracy Woloshyniuk spoke about the importance of Newbrook

Observatory and invited the guests to explore. Everyone was well fed at the Newbrook Library for a luncheon provided by the Friends of the Newbrook Library Society. The day was filled with laughter and jokes and offered something unique to community members, a chance to look back to "the good old days." Derek Toronchuk, Thorhild Museum, said, "It was a great day, and next year the Museum hopes it can bring that same energy once again." It is hoped that this tour will be held annually for years to come.

New member added to Asia-Pacific free trade bloc

By ATB Financial Team

It still needs to be ratified, but the United Kingdom has formally agreed to join the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership (CPTPP).

Canada is a full member of the free trade bloc along with Australia, Brunei Darussalam, Chile, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, Singapore, and Vietnam.

With a combined GDP in 2022 of US$14.6 trillion (including the UK), the CPTPP is one of the world's largest free trade zones.

The UK will be the first European country to join the CPTPP and the first new member since its formation in 2018.

The Asia-Pacific region is expected to be home to about half the world's middle-class consumers by 2035.

In 2022, Alberta exported $8.7 billion worth of goods to CPTPP countries representing about 4% of our total merchandise exports. If we exclude the US, exports into the CPTPP zone accounted for 40% of Alberta's exports in 2022.

Free trade agreements are not panaceas (ongoing barriers to Canadian beef and pork exports to the UK are a case in point), but as a major exporter, Alberta's economy benefits from Canada's participation in agreements that reduce barriers to the international flow of goods and services.

Alberta consumers also benefit from free trade agreements to the degree to which they reduce the costs of imported goods and services.

Horseback and handshakes

Laurie Peterson and her horse Cruz along side Norma Wark and her horse Misty. Both traveled over an hour to come enjoy the day

By Brandie Majeau

The Rainbow Equitation Society, founded on August 10, 1981, is a not-for-profit group that offers memberships to individuals and families to utilize their amazing property. They are also stewards of several natural areas. This piece of land is nestled among the Halfmoon Lake Natural Area, Ghost Horse Hills Conservation Area and borders the Pioneer Trail North Foundation property. These properties work hand in hand to create an unbelievable outdoor space that invites people to cherish and embrace the freedom of the natural world.

On July 22, the Rainbow Equitation Society (RES) invited its members to a Summer Social. The event was the first in many years and was organized to encourage awareness of what they had to offer and a chance to meet new people and mingle for a day. The morning sun shone brightly, and individuals and groups slowly began appearing. Several guests were there early with horse trailers in tow to take in the beautiful trails and views on horseback. Others arrived at lunchtime to enjoy a fantastic BBQ under the gazebo. Event organizers and board members commented on being unsure what to expect, and aside from a scheduled meal, the idea was to have an open day where people could flow at their own pace.

Close to fifty guests responded, and the experience was almost magical. Guests arrived from hours away, many of whom had been members from years before, and several were invited to join friends and family members. The communal space was filled with hugs and calls of excitement as people continued to arrive. Jenny Losey, one of the original RES members, attended and reminisced about being pulled in simply because she was looking for a farrier in the area long ago, which turned into an invitation to go horseback riding. The previous board president, Linda Arsenault, who held the position for ten years, gave off palpable feelings as she gushed over her passion for the beauty of the property and all that it has to offer.

So, what makes the Rainbow Equitation Society so special? Besides being a society for over 40 years and being honoured with awards for their dedication and excellence in stewardship, RES has become a space that offers something rare. The property has become a place where visitors know they have safety, peace, and a special quietness to attune to nature. No dogs are allowed off leash, and absolutely no off-road vehicles are allowed, providing a safe place to work with horses or collect your thoughts as you venture through over 5 kilometres of volunteer-maintained trails. The University of Alberta Biology Department also monitors sites in the natural area for plant and animal diversity. Biologists from the Edmonton Native Plant Society monitor and keep plant ID records for these areas as well; many of them may be rare or endangered. Across from the RES property, NAIT survey students are brought out to look at old survey mounds that are apparently hard to find now.

Wherever you are from, outdoor enthusiasts of all interests and levels of activity are always encouraged to reach out to the Rainbow Equitation Society. Find out more about all that it has to offer. Volunteer some time. Combined with all other natural areas, there are twenty-two kilometres to explore. Immerse yourself in an experience that connects you to the world around you. RES can be reached at rainbowequitation@gmail.com or found on Facebook at Rainbow Equitation Society. Visitors will become family, reach out, and become a part of something exceptional.

One of the trails at the Rainbow Equitation Society is dedicated to the Westlock Cadets for all their volunteer work and time spent on the property

NOXIOUS WEED WATCH

Several noxious weeds have been identified throughout the County. Noxious weeds are very invasive and spread very quickly, so due diligence with early control is key. If you see any of the following or are unsure about identification of a plant, please contact the Agricultural Services staff at 780-398-3977 ext. 3974.

Yellow Toadflax

Provincial Designation: Noxious

Yellow toadflax grows up to 80 cm in height by a creeping root system. Flowers are light yellow with an orange spot on its lower lip, like a snapdragon. It has long, slim, light green leaves.

Control

Grazing: Pasture invasions flourish because the plant is not palatable to livestock.

Mechanical: Thorough hand-pulling can be effective in soft soils where the roots can be removed easily. Repetition is required to deplete the seed bank and all root pieces. Mowing can assist by starving the roots.

Chemical: Acetic acid, Amitrole, Dichlorprop, Diuron, Glyphosate, Hexazinone, Imazapyr, MCPA, Metsulfuron-methyl, Picloram and Tribenuron-methyl & Thifensulfuron-methyl (in a product mix) are registered for use on toadflax. Always check product labels to ensure the herbicide is registered for use on the target plant in Canada by the Pest Management Regulatory Agency. Always read and follow label directions.

Orange Hawkweed

Provincial Designation: Prohibited Noxious

Orange hawkweed grows from 30-60 cm in height with a hairy stem, that contains a milky fluid when broken open. Flowers are a bright orange-red cluster at the top. Leaves are bristly-hairy with few to no leaves being found on the stem.

Control

Grazing: Unknown. Invasive plants should never be considered as forage.

Mechanical: Mowing before flowering will prevent seed production of taller plants but will not inhibit reproduction via stolons and rhizomes. Hand digging of small infestations where all stolons and root can be removed may be effective. Root fragments can generate new plants, therefore any mechanical tilling/cultivation would be ineffective.

Chemical: Hexazinone, 2,4-D, and glyphosate are registered for use on Hieracium spp./hawkweeds. Always check product labels to ensure the herbicide is registered for use on the target plant in Canada by the Pesticide Management Regulatory Agency.

Pioneer days draws a crowd

By Brandie Majeau

Radway Pioneer Days began like many other community fairs. A pancake breakfast was served, a parade entertained, bouncy castles were blown up and filled with joyful yells and bouncing feet, and Radway Agriplex opened its doors to a summer market for everyone to enjoy an amazing display of goods from vendors far and wide. A giant pile of sand was even brought in for a special treasure hunt. Patrons gathered for refreshments and nibbles of burgers, hot dogs, and fries. Beyond that, Radway Pioneer Days set itself apart.

This year was the third annual Show and Shine and Swap meet. The car show boasted ninety-one entries that highlighted an amazing display of vehicles spanning a century. The swap meet sported a variety of items. One gentleman with wares on display commented that a swap meet is kind of like a vintage garage sale. While many people bring vehicle parts and accessories, there is always something fun and unique to be found in the mix of strewn bits. Four lucky puppies that were brought along for the ride found their forever homes.

Scarlett and Everly found over 40 golden tokens in the treasure hunt pile and already had chosen a pop it fidget spinner and little duck from the treasure chests.

The Bench and Quilt Show featured an amazing amount of talent. The bench show displayed a variety of baked goods and preserves, with numerous entries displaying placement ribbons for their accomplishments. The show did not stop at food. An eclectic mix of art, Lego creations, plants and various other displays of talent were spread among the tables for viewing. The Redwater Quilters Guild provided an amazing exhibition of quilts. Vicky Dybaylo Shears stated, "We are very pleased to be here!" While the guild offers beginner lessons and classes for quilters, as well as projects, the Redwater Quilter's Guild has many charity workers. Quilts that have been lovingly created piece by piece are often donated to charities. Last year's donations included (but were not limited to) victim services (Redwater), Wings of Providence, Ukrainian Refugees and Kids Kottage. The Guild also donates an abundance of bunny shirts and premie quilts to the Royal Alexandra Hospital Neonatal ICU.

Radway Pioneer Days lends itself to the feel of "old school." It brings back that feeling of running barefoot with a popsicle in hand, watching grandpa pull his tractor into the field, waving to the neighbour as he drives by in his muscle car, and stopping to chat with a stranger just to say hello. There is always an appreciation for all the volunteers that make this event a success, and always room to welcome more volunteers for the next one. Radway Agricultural Society will be hosting RCW Wrestling in October and a Christmas market in November. If you missed Pioneer Days this year, they hope to see you next year!

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

HOROSCOPE

ARIES

(March 21 - April 20)

Aries, someone in your life says they're making changes, but when you look closely it seems like much of the same. A little encouragement on your part can help this person along.

TAURUS

(April 21 - May 21)

Tread lightly if you broach a difficult conversation with someone close to you, Taurus. These are tricky waters you are navigating and you want to maintain the relationship.

GEMINI

(May 22 - June 21)

Problems may seem to you to be bigger than they really are, Gemini. Step back, take a few breaths and then look at things from another perspective. Ask for a second opinion as well.

CANCER

(June 22 - July 22)

Look for the double meanings in conversations you're having with coworkers this week, Cancer. They could be trying to tell you something, so read between the lines.

LEO

(July 23 - August 23)

Leo, you are typically good at reading others' moods, so use that skill this week when placed in a sensitive situation. It will help guide you on what to say and what to keep quiet for now.

VIRGO

(August 24 - September 22)

There is a lot of socializing going on in your life right now, Virgo. Enjoy the excitement while it lasts and maximize all of the events you can attend. Things may start to slow in a few weeks.

LIBRA

(September 23 - October 23)

It's probably best to keep your head down for the next few days and just go about your normal routine, Libra. Don't get pulled into anyone's drama or offer your take on things.

SCORPIO

(October 24 - November 22)

Scorpio, it is time to be more proactive about getting what you want. Make a list of the things that most interest you right now, and then devise a plan to make things happen.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

Figure out which stance you want to take right now, Sagittarius. Are you seeing the glass half full or half empty? Perception can affect your daily life in many ways.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)

Good news is on the way, Capricorn. This will leave you floating on air for some time afterwards. Surround yourself with the people you love this week so that they can share the good fortune.

AQUARIUS

(January 21 - February 18)

There is a lot that you have been juggling for some time, Aquarius. Unless you take a break or ask for help, one of those balls are going to fall and that could have a domino effect.

PISCES

(February 19 - March 20)

Pisces, there is a process to everything. Remain patient and stay the course no matter how excited you are. Rest assured that things will work out if you can hang in there.

Summer fun at Radway Library

By Brandie Majeau

Radway Public Library is in full summer swing. With the summer season alternating between extreme heat and a rainy mess, Radway Library has provided a reprieve from the sometimes-frustrating summer conditions. The doors are swung open, and families are welcome to join the staff on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and dig in their hands and get messy and imaginative! The space has been transformed into a space for little ones to be inspired.

Librarian Sandra Moschansky has created a hub of community excitement. When many people think of summer vacations, they think of beaches and open roads. Summertime and vacation can also be opportunities to explore your talents and creativity and feed your mind with stories and makerspace. Aleasha Anderson, leading the crafting groups, has a summer full of surprises for children to dig into. Contact Radway Library for more information and take advantage of this amazing community program. You do not always have to look far when you are looking for something to do, and your summer is yours to plan and decide. It just might be having a blast engaging at your local library!

Last week, golfers were delighted to hit the greens at the Redwater Golf Course after a few days of refreshing rain. The lush fairways and well-maintained greens provided the perfect setting for a day of golfing enjoyment. The recent rainfall had worked its magic on the course, enhancing the natural beauty of the landscape and adding a touch of vibrancy to the surroundings. Golfers reveled in the pleasant weather and the opportunity to test their skills on the slightly dampened terrain. Whether it was a seasoned golfer perfecting their swing or a novice learning the ropes, the Redwater Golf Course offered an inclusive and welcoming atmosphere for everyone to appreciate the sport and the beauty of the outdoors.
