A hole-in-one for not-for-profit organizations

By Brandie Majeau

“Today is a great example of what community is capable of doing. We asked our friends to come and support a couple of our not-for-profits, and they came through with flying colours.” Redwater Mayor David McRae really summed up the Mayor and Council Annual Golf Tournament. Every year, the tournament is held to raise funds for different community groups. Not-for-profit organizations need to apply to be one of the recipients of the funds raised by the tournament. Last year, they raised approximately $8000. This year, the recipients of the golf tournament donations

Sturgeon County now recruiting paid on-call firefighters

Sturgeon County Emergency Services is expanding its team of paid on-call firefighters at its stations throughout the County.

Our firefighters provide a critical service in the community. Their dedication means we are here to respond to emergency calls any time of day, every day of the year. While we already have a highly skilled team of paid on-call firefighters, regular recruitment helps ensure we can answer emergency calls and meet the needs of the community when they need us most.

Paid on-call firefighters receive professional firefighter training at no cost. This training is recognized across North America and can jumpstart a rewarding career in firefighting. Individuals living in or around Bon Accord, Calahoo, Legal, Namao or Redwater are encouraged to apply by Sept. 6.

Paid on-call firefighters are paid hourly for responding to emergencies, attending weekly training, attending courses, and participating in approved public engagement activities; pay starts at $21.47 per hour. All uniforms and equipment are provided, and no previous experience is needed.

Application requirements

To apply to become a paid on-call firefighter with Sturgeon County Emergency Services, you must:

- Live within 10 kilometres of the Bon Accord, Calahoo, Legal, Namao or Redwater fire stations
- Be at least 18 years old.
- Have a valid Class 5 driver's licence.
- Provide a vulnerable sector check and driver's abstract.

Applications are accepted online until Sept. 6.

Coffee, conversation, and history

By Brandie Majeau

On August 4, the Thorhild Museum, in partnership with the Thorhild Library, hosted a delightful day of coffee and snacks for guests to drop in and enjoy. The event was created to act as a promotion for Thorhild Museum. Derek Toronchuk expressed that by promoting the museum

Thank You!

The Town of Redwater would like to extend a HUGE thank you to the Redwater & District Agricultural Society, businesses, community groups, and all of the volunteers for the time and great effort put into making Discovery Days 2023 a huge success!

this way, it allowed guests to reminisce and enjoy the day rather than just walk through the museum. The atmosphere was a mix of nostalgia and excitement as young and old dropped in to visit and see what this special piece of Thorhild County history has to offer. As folks mingled and conversed, stories began to flow and draw in those who had experienced the rise of the small community as well as those who had not been there to see it. Toronchuk from Thorhild Museum stated, "It was super awesome to see all the many smiles and laughter the day with held."

The museum is packed with information and memories from the local community and tells the story of how Thorhild was settled and changed over the years. Over fifty guests wandered through the doors to enjoy the simple celebration of small-town history on display. The members of the Historical Society donated an assortment of yummy treats for visitors to enjoy, accompanied by refreshments contributed by Thorhild Library. Librarian Kathy Pasay said, "It was a fantastic day!"

Seventy-two registered players and additional supper reception guests showed their support on August 11 and represented a variety of regional stakeholders. The week had been filled with rain and an unpredictable forecast, but Friday morning opened to sunny skies and an obvious lack of precipitation. The wind was a welcome friend as it gently chased away the mosquitoes. Thirty-three corporate sponsors and donors were quick to donate to the occasion. Equipment such as barbeques, prizes and silent auction items were all in abundance and immediate. It was commented on that when sponsors were invited to donate to the charity event, you never have to ask twice. They always come through in spades.

In addition to the corporate sponsors, the tournament showed lots of strong volunteer support. The tournament would like to recognize over forty volunteers and staff that worked together to make this such a successful event. Events of this magnitude, with so many working parts, take a lot to put it all together. Beginning with the organizers, team players step in to fill the shoes of BBQ cooks, the constant need for running around, organizing raffles and auction items, etc., right down to the team at Redwater Golf Course working hard to stay ahead of the water in order for the greens to be playable. The entire tournament is a show of community rallying together.

Even the local MLA dropped by the BBQ to show his support. He spoke of a community spirit being alive and well in Redwater and was looking forward to riding in the parade the following weekend for Redwater Discovery Days. CAO Ken VanBuul remarked that he is relatively new to the community, having been here just over a year, and how this small community never ceases to amaze him. Whether it be a church, an event or community need, you see the community pride of everyone coming together.

The Mayor and Council Annual Golf Tournament was very successful. While the final tally is still not completed at this time, it was exciting to announce that so far, the Redwater Art Society and Redwater and District Museum will be receiving $1415 from the auction items and $1480 from the Mulligan Raffle for Oilers tickets. Many commented on how well run and organized it was and couldn't see it going any better. The consensus seemed to be that there was just the right number of players, the right number of volunteers, and the perfect combination of how everything fell into place to make the day successful. The only unfortunate part of the tournament was that there were no big winners this year for two hole-in-one opportunities to win a truck from Redwater Dodge and $15,000 for Alberta Municipalities.

Jennifer Edworthy, Community Services Supervisor, offered the following statement: "I would like to extend a special thank you to the 3rd Canadian Division Support Group from CFB Edmonton for attending our event, as it was an excellent opportunity for our regional stakeholders to learn more about our military neighbours. Did you know that some of their facilities, such as the Edmonton Garrison Fitness Centre, are open to public members and offer a special membership rate to Sturgeon County residents? For sponsors looking to be involved in this great community initiative or others, they can contact Community Services at jedworthy@redwater.ca or 780-942-4101."
