"Welcome! Welcome! Come in!" The Thorhild & District Agricultural Society presented its annual

Light Up Party at the Thorhild Agriplex on December 3, inviting community members to come as families and enjoy a few hours with friends and, of course, Santa. With Shell and North Corridor Co-op as contributing donors to the event, the ag society was able to host an amazing affair. A table was piled high in Christmas gift fashion with dozens of festive craft kits for each child to select.

Redwater lights up the holiday season

By Brandie Majeau

The Town of Redwater was bursting with holiday merriment as the innumerable hours spent on homes and public spaces took shape and revealed themselves in all their seasonal glory for the annual Kris Kringle Mingle, Christmas Market, Festival of Trees, and community light-up. On the evening of December 1, Pembina Place was transformed into an extraordinary wonderland of Christmas enchantment. Christmas trees sparkled, and larger-than-life festive décor radiated a welcoming glow, and Mr. and Mrs. Claus had both taken time from their busy schedules to attend. The excitement and wonderful chaos of the Kris Kringle Mingle surpassed the enthusiasm and bustle of even Santa's own toy workshop. Visitors circulated between a myriad of activities and games. Not only were there cookie decorating stations and tree ornament crafts, but guests could also take a turn in the holiday photo booth, get their face painted, enjoy live entertainment, and take in the mild evening outdoors, cozied up by crackling fires enjoying roasted treats, popcorn, and other complementary delights to warm the soul. Celebrations continued through December 2. Redwater & District Ag Society held their annual craft and bake sale

The fireworks display was the finale for the evening.

Tables were lined in greens and reds, offering the perfect place to dump open boxes and work on various projects.

Santa had made his way to town after a variety of events in neighboring communities and was found relaxing and enjoying himself on the ice. Everyone was welcome to pull on their skates and test their skills against the jolly man himself. After stretching his legs and showing off his skating abilities, Santa was ready to grab a chair and find out who had been naughty or nice. Armed with a society of volunteers as stand-in helper elves, Santa doled out treat bags and waited patiently for little ones to take their turn for photo opportunities and the once-a-year chance to say hello to the man of the season.

The evening drew to a close as projects were completed, and skates were tucked back into bags. Tummies were full of hotdogs, hot chocolate, cookies, and candy canes, and it was time for Santa to say his goodbyes and the arena lights to be turned off. Guests delighted in enjoying one more surprise before heading on their way. A dazzling firework show elicited oohs and awws and shrieks of joy. Each pause in the show had people turning towards their vehicles, ready to head home, only to be drawn back as the display continued. The fireworks continued to crack through the night sky, colors bursting in dazzling effects, finally fading and concluding with a round of applause and cheers, signaling goodnight from the annual Thorhild Light Up.

along with the continuation of the Festival of Trees. A steady stream of people took in the wonderful fares of the market throughout the day. As the hours progressed, daylight slid into a burst of pinkish hues and then faded into darkness. With this slide into darkness, residents in the Town of Redwater dazzled their neighbors and visitors with their dedication and talent, transforming their homes and yards into stunning displays. Each strand of lights, whether one of fifty was hung, has contributed to the special kind of something that has the ability to bring back childhood memories and wonderment. Something so magical that it causes pause and filters into the heart, bringing a smile to the lips and a twinkle in the eye.

Redwater radiated community and holiday spirit. Over 700 guests attended the holiday mingle, and this was only made possible by their sponsors and volunteers. There is a huge thank you to all of these groups, businesses, organizations, and individuals for their participation in making these events possible and the happiness they bring to the community during the holiday season and all year round.

Egremont Community Club presents: S'moresland

Egremont Hall was packed for their Christmas market.

Enjoying the fire with a cup of hot chocolate and a 'smores kit by the fire before enjoying the outdoor skating rink.

By Brandie Majeau

The third annual S'moresland event was met with sunshine and warm temperatures. Thankfully, the weather leading up to the December 3 festivities cooperated and threw in some adequately freezing overnight temperatures that resulted in the perfect construction and creation of the customary Egremont Community Club outdoor skating rink. S'moresland always marks the opening of this free outdoor rink for the community. Egremont Hall was packed with a variety of vendors for their accompanying Christmas market, offering an amazing array of holiday gifts, ornaments, and delicious sweets and savory foods. Egremont Community Club members had been hard at work leading up to S'moresland, decorating the hall befitting the season and event. Hot dogs were cooked and offered up with all the fixings. Coffee, hot chocolate, and hot apple cider were plentiful and warmed you to the core with a taste of all things Christmas. The tantalizing aroma of wood smoke filtered through the air, inviting attendees to relax with courtesy kits containing ingredients to create their own perfect 'smores. In anticipation of a S'moresland festival without the outdoor skating rink, a horse-drawn wagon waited patiently to provide rides to children and children at heart. S'moresland has become an annual holiday tradition and epitomizes a community coming together. Egremont Community Club embodies a team of volunteers passionate enough to ensure this event is one that coaxes families to return to year after year. Santa, Elf, and the Grinch were the stars on top of the Christmas tree. The engaging antics of this trio drew in the children to visit, skate, and ride the wagon, becoming a part of their family excitement for an afternoon of holiday fun.

Gary patiently waits for the next group of riders to enjoy a wagon ride around town.

Change to Consumers' Choice program regarding community newspapers

Canada Post respects Canadians' choice when it comes to receiving un-addressed advertising mail delivered by their postal service. That's why our Consumers' Choice program offers a simple way for Canadians to stop receiving it.

Community newspapers are currently exempted from the Consumers' Choice program. However, to respect Canadians' choice, we are updating our approach to the delivery of community newspapers that contain commercial inserts. Effective January 8, 2024, community newspapers with commercial inserts or enclosures will no longer be delivered to addresses that are signed up for the Consumers' Choice program.

We will continue to deliver public interest materials to all addresses. This includes community newspapers (and community newspapers with inserts of a public interest nature). It also includes mailings from elected representatives, political parties, government departments and agencies at the federal, provincial, territorial and municipal levels, as well as band councils. Visit canadapost.ca/consumerschoice to learn more.

Consumers' Choice Acknowledgment Notice (33-086-558) will be updated to reflect this change.

If you do not receive the Review in your mailbox starting January, please see the paper online at www.theredwaterreview.com.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

HOROSCOPE

ARIES

(March 21 - April 20)

Take it easy this week, Aries. You may need to coast for a little bit rather than racing that car around every turn. Enjoy all the simple things you can do and cherish the memories.

TAURUS

(April 21 - May 21)

Taurus, if you cannot be yourself with your friends, then with whom? Let down your defenses and do what you want this week, especially if you are celebrating at a social event. No one will be judging.

GEMINI

(May 22 - June 21)

Gemini, devote some time to planning your vision of the future, rather than just focusing on the work in front of you. It is wise to be planning months ahead to set yourself up for success.

CANCER

(June 22 - July 22)

Others may tell you to get your head out of the clouds, Cancer, but you can leave it right there. It pays to dream a little because you never know when great ideas will come to you.

LEO

(July 23 - August 23)

Put your emotions first, Leo. Rather than thinking with your head, you need to think with your heart. You have to trust your gut and make decisions based on intuition right now.

VIRGO

(August 24 - September 22)

Virgo, empathy will come very easily to you this week, when you can easily put yourself in someone else's shoes and know just what they are feeling. Continue to support your friends.

LIBRA

(September 23 - October 23)

Motivations may be running low right now regarding improving your health, Libra. You can start thinking of strategies to put into effect for New Year's resolutions.

SCORPIO

(October 24 - November 22)

Try to keep your feet firmly planted on the ground this week, Scorpio. Various distractions are trying to knock you off course, but you don't have time for that now.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

You need to put family first right now, Sagittarius. Every other thing that is in your orbit should take a back seat to familial obligations and the needs of loved ones.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)

Capricorn, a conversation with a neighbor or colleague can begin on a casual note and then grow into something much more profound. Always keep your eyes open to possibilities.

AQUARIUS

(January 21 - February 18)

There are more ways to increase your income without having to resort to backbreaking work, Aquarius. Look around to explore the possibilities that might be out there.

PISCES

(February 19 - March 20)

Pisces, rather than trying to fit in this week, march to the beat of your own drummer. You'll soon find a squad who thinks similarly to you. Then you can enjoy longlasting friendship.

The land is fenced and there are two good dugouts so it's all ready for your animals. Also a few nice building spots on this property and power runs along both the range road and township road. Great spot for hunting, quadding, snowmobiling. County bylaws allow for subdivision of this land. $279,900 plus gst. Call Heather for more info.

Thank you, Thorhild County

For 25 years, Keyera has been a proud Alberta company, living, working, and investing in the communities where we operate.

In 2021, we began construction of KAPS, Alberta's newest 575-kilometre-long pipeline system supporting Canada's role on the global energy stage. Spanning from Grande Prairie to Fort Saskatchewan, we are excited to announce that we have completed construction in the Thorhild County community. Thanks to you, KAPS represents more than a pipeline, it's a symbol of partnership and prosperity.

Your engagement and partnership during the project were critical to the successful completion of KAPS. We value the time that we spent with each community, including approximately 400 site visits with 22 Indigenous communities and receiving approval on the pipeline route from nearly 600 landowners and occupants. We thank you for your input, support, and patience leading up to and during construction. Keyera will continue to have a small presence in the area for reclamation and operational activities, and thanks you in advance for your continuing support.

In celebration of KAPS and our commitment to communities along the KAPS route, we are proudly investing a total of $300,000 through our Keyera Connects Social Investment program across three pillars:

- Environmental Innovation: Project Forest to plant nearly 50,000 trees at the Wagner Natural Area close to the KAPS right-of-way.
- Indigenous Reconciliation: Northern Alberta Institute of Technology (NAIT) to support education and training for Indigenous community members with employment opportunities in the industry.
- Community Resiliency: Inside Education to facilitate education and empowerment of youth living in communities connected to KAPS.

As Keyera celebrates its 25th anniversary this year, we look forward to building our relationships and continuing to collaborate with the Thorhild County community for the next 25 years and beyond.

Stay fit in the winter

Other fitness equipment is geared towards more muscle development. The Victoria Trail Ag Society has done a wonderful job with this modern fitness centre, a huge service to the region.

By Irene van der Kloet

Summer is when we are most active: walking, hiking, gardening or other outdoor activities, spending as much time outside as possible. Enough to keep us fit, maintain our weight, or even lose some. Once winter starts, outdoor activities become limited; we can go out in the snow to ski, walk, or snowshoe, but that is not for everyone, so we must find other ways to stay fit. Waskatenau Fitness Centre has all the answers for those who want to keep fit in the winter. This modern, state-of-the-art Fitness Centre is an initiative of the Victoria Trail Agricultural Society and started approximately five years ago. The federal and provincial government, Farm Credit Canada, Waskatenau Lions Club, Waskatenau Firemen/s Association, Richardson Pioneer and Jim and Sandra Toews helped sponsor the fitness centre. “We have about 65-70 members”, Sandra Toews, fitness centre coordinator, says. “And we have all age groups.

Young people usually come in the afternoon after school or in the evenings. Others come throughout the day.” The centre contains a full array of cardio equipment with treadmills, ellipticals, stairs, a rowing machine, bicycles and a spinning bike, enough to keep a person busy for hours. For the powerlifting enthusiast wanting to develop more muscle, there is also much to choose from: multiple machines to develop upper body strength in different exercises and other equipment to build leg, calf and back muscles, as well as mats, balls, weights, skipping ropes and much more. Your whole body can get a good workout in this fitness centre. The equipment is new and well-maintained. Volunteers help cleaning and doing janitorial. A large TV offers options to listen to music or watch videos while working out. “We have general rules like ‘leave outside shoes by the door’ and ‘spray equipment after use,’ but that is all common sense. We want the equipment to be clean for the next user.” Sandra explains. That was especially important during COVID-19, but it is common practice in fitness centres. Access to the fitness centre goes through an app that requires a membership that can be bought online. This way, the centre is accessible 24 hours per day. The changing rooms with showers are clean and neat; there are cubbies where users can leave their belongings. For a small village like Waskatenau, the fitness centre is an asset serving the village and surrounding communities. It gives the general public an excellent and safe opportunity to stay fit year-round. For more information, please get in touch with Sandra Toews at 780-258-0024.

George Haig

November 10, 1930 – December 4, 2023

It is with great sadness that the family of George Haig, of Abee Alberta, announce his passing at the age of 93. George is survived by his wife Marie (67 years of marriage); Casey (his faithful dog); daughters: Colleen Haig, Penny Wychopen, and Lori Haig (Mike Chartier); grandchildren: Jeffrey (Britney) Wychopen, Melissa (Trevor) Stephanow, Chanice (Brandon) Wallen; great-grandchildren: Emily, Talon, and Cade Stephanow, Jace and Nova Wychopen, and Bryson and Ivy Wallen.

He also leaves behind his brother Morris Haig and sister Mary Nikiforuk.

George was predeceased by his parents Charles and Pearl Haig and son-in-law Ed Wychopen.

George was born on the Haig homestead. He went to Tudor School up to Grade 8. He was a grain and livestock farmer. George loved animals. As he had no sons, his wife and three daughters worked beside him. George was the third generation of the Haig family to live and farm on the homestead (1911 - 2023).

Thorhild Community Team defeated by CFCW Critters: 7-19

Players line up for introductions before beginning the game.

By Brandie Majeau

November 30th marked the historic 30th anniversary of the original game between the 840 CFCW Critters and Thorhild Community Team. The inaugural Thorhild vs Critters game took place in 1993, launching the Critters' hockey career and raising over a million dollars for local communities. The pre-game ceremony commenced with introductions to both teams, and a Thorhild

Agricultural Society speech presented by Troy Vetsch elaborated on the history and impact of the Thorhild Agriplex on the community. This year also commemorates the 50th anniversary of the Thorhild & District Agricultural Society becoming an Agricultural Society. Reeve Janine Paly also addressed the crowded stands, noting the historical significance of the game. MLA Glen Van Dijken followed with greetings from himself and Premier Danielle Smith, expressing gratitude to the Ag Society for their community work and their volunteers. Van Dijken also offered special thanks to the CFCW Critters for their fundraising efforts over the past thirty years. Six players who competed in the original Thorhild vs Critters game were also in attendance.

Thorhild Community Team jerseys were presented to the opposing team, as well as to Thorhild County Reeve. Pictures were taken of the ceremonial puck drop, and then the fun began. Number 23, Alex Torguson of the Thorhild Team, faced off against Number 8-40, the Critter, for the first puck drop. Within seconds, the Critter was up to no good, engaging Torguson in a scuffle that was quickly resolved. These playful antics set the tone for the rest of the game. The fast-paced game had both teams pushing hard. #81, Brett Quaghebeur's celebration for scoring the first goal against the Critters was short-lived, as he was asked to pose for a picture to mark the occasion. While smiling with the opposing team in front of the camera, a sneaky pie in the face came from behind him.

Minute after minute ticked by as the CFCW Critters kept Thorhild on their feet with a variety of sneaky plays and tricks. Thorhild up a couple of goals? No problem for the CFCW team; they quickly retaliated with a flying V formation that sent the opposing team members sprawling in all directions, allowing one of their Oil Kings Junior Critters to follow safely behind and swoop in to score a redeeming goal. The scoreboard continued to mark the accumulating goals, with the Critters' tally growing suspiciously quicker than the home team. The good-natured competition thrilled the packed stands. The Critter's antics were a nuisance and delightfully naughty, engaging the fans. Children burst into laughter as he dove into the opposing net, sprayed, or dumped water on opposing teammates or utilized a variety of deceptive plays to ensure a win.

The Critters vs Thorhild County game engaged the entire community, drawing in approximately 350 supporters for the charitable event. Typical of every hockey game, arena food and treats flew from the concession window. The above 18 crowd could enjoy an adult beverage in the upstairs beer gardens, as well as challenge each other to a variety of donated items in the silent auction. Children purchased sheets of paper and put their folding skills to the test to create paper airplanes, thrown onto the ice for a chance to win a multitude of prizes, including a quad. Unfortunately, the quad was not won, but the real winner of the game was the Thorhild Agricultural Society, managing to raise $27,000 to support the maintenance and preservation of the Thorhild Agriplex.

The Critter crawls on the Thorhild County Team net to spray water at their goalie.

A flurry of paper airplanes soar on the ice in hopes of winning a quad.
