

Thorhild Fun Hockey is a great alternative

By Brandie Majeau

Thorhild Fun Hockey is pleased to offer a lower commitment, lower cost alternative to participate in Canada's national sport. With practices being held once a week and generally games occurring once a month, the Fun Hockey teams allow families time to breathe and enjoy the sport of hockey, with an emphasis on fun. The purpose of Fun Hockey is to practice skills and the art of scrimmage at a more relaxed pace.

This design encourages a strengthening of family bonds by emphasizing parent interaction and help. Parents may help on and off the ice with no experience required.

Reader's Society fundraiser

By Brandie Majeau

The Radway Readers, Radway Public Library's "friends group", spent a wintry afternoon deep in artistic creation. Caps were popped off of paint tubes and paint brushes were dusted off as they took to the table to carefully bring a series of white wares to life. White shapes came to life as careful brush strokes became feathers and fur. The sparkle of life began to dance with the emergence of eyes and delicate features. The afternoon fell away as the group lost themselves into the magical transformations of porcelain to whimsical woodland creatures.

The Radway Reader's Society worked their creative magic to ensure a successful fundraiser where the pieces would be sold to raise money for the group. The success of these fundraisers is important to the future continuation of the library. The society is essential to the survival of a small town public library, ensuring additional funds to provide assistance in purchasing craft supplies, books, food items and often contributing to the larger purchases of Radway Library.

Smoky Lake Long Term Care serves up handmade pet treats

By Brandie Majeau

Smoky Lake Long Term Care went pet-friendly to offer special treats to all the local fur babies. Over twenty residents embarked on a handcrafted fundraiser this past Valentine's Day. With the discussion surrounding fundraising ideas and opportunities, a co-worker from Radway Extended Care mentioned that they tried a dog and cat treat campaign and it went really well. The idea was mentioned to the residents, and it was very well received. The group loves pets and thought the project of getting their hands dirty and baking individual treats for furry friends would be a wonderful and creative endeavor.

The fundraiser was proposed to help with the costs of some

higher-priced items. With the residents enjoying entertainment and common group activities, Smoky Lake Long Term Care was looking to purchase a new TV and stand using fundraising income in addition to donations. The excitement built as the campaign was posted to the community's Facebook page and orders began to roll in. The Pet Biscuit Fundraiser showed amazing support from the community as people reacted positively to the natural ingredients and handcrafting of the treats.

With orders at the ready, residents rolled up their sleeves and enjoyed the simple pleasure of measuring, mixing, and getting their hands mucked up for a communal goal and the benefit of something special for an array of fuzzy companions. The delicious items were packed with additional ingredients, tenderness, and compassion. On February 14, Smoky Lake Long Term Care completed their orders and handed them off with pride and accomplishment. After posting the fundraising event, one anonymous Facebook friend generously donated a 55-inch television to the residents! After raising approximately $135, the residents will purchase a portable stand to use with the donated TV. It is with high hopes after this fundraiser that their long-term care facility will have conveyed the resident's true fondness of pets, perhaps resulting in some pre-approved pet visits in the future.

FIRE ADVISORY NOW IN EFFECT
Effective March 7, 2024 at 4:30 p.m.

FIRE ADVISORY

Given the lack of ground moisture over the winter leading to severe drought conditions in our region, Thorhild County has issued a Fire Advisory effective, March 7, 2024 at 4:30 p.m.

Any outstanding Fire Permits are hereby cancelled. Any active fires from a permitted burn must be immediately extinguished.

Residents are urged to inspect permitted burn sites to ensure they are completely extinguished. Fires can smolder underground and flare up into a wildfire when the conditions are right. It is the landowners responsibility to ensure that all permitted burns are extinguished prior to expiration of their permit.

Use extreme caution when working or driving in grassy areas and be mindful of debris collecting on hot exhaust, which can heat up, fall to the ground, and start a wildfire.

The following activities are prohibited:

- Any fire requiring a Fire Permit

The following are allowed; to be used with caution:

- Burn Barrels and Incinerators
- Recreational fires and back yard fire pits
- Propane and natural gas-powered appliances
- Charcoal barbeques

For more information and to view allowed activities, please visit www.thorhildcounty.com, click on the Services tab, then Fire Emergency Services - Fire Bans.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Even refereeing is a parent option with training available (when the score is actually kept). "We are not just hillbilly." Joked one of the parents. There is always at least one coach with their coaching level 1 and the game is not just shinny. Thorhild Fun Hockey is a structured sport offering a set schedule and games. The idea is to create a life including hockey that supports a healthy life and sport balance. Parents will not be pulled in opposite directions with siblings tagging along as games consume entire weekends. For team members of Fun Hockey, games are generally staged close to home, attempting to limit travel to within 1.5 hours of Thorhild. Games are also generally scheduled on Saturday mornings, leaving the rest of the weekend to be free for family. And games are never scheduled on back-to-back weekends. Thorhild Fun Hockey must be addressing a need in the community, as approximately forty players between the ages of 4 - 17 take to the ice each week. The parents are happy and enjoy the leisurely pace that fun hockey focuses on. Teams are split by age and skill and are not required to have a set level of players per team, creating three levels of Fun Hockey teams for the 2023/2024 year. Thorhild Fun Hockey is always looking for fresh players to join their hockey family. The last game of the season will be held on March 16th, but Thorhild Fun Hockey looks forward to welcoming any new faces when registration opens again in the fall, mid-October. Redwater Caregiver Workshops extends invite to become Senior Caregiver Ambassadors

By Brandie Majeau

On the heels of the success of Redwater's Caregiver workshop, Caregiver's Alberta is inviting community members to join their Senior Caregiver Ambassador program. This program is aimed to reach out to seniors to connect within their community and become a beacon of support for senior caregivers. The program endeavors to link with caregivers requiring support and become a liaison between senior centers and residences to share information about Caregivers Alberta programs and share or distribute resources between public areas such as libraries or care facilities.

While all ages are welcome to apply to volunteer, becoming a caregiver ambassador is currently targeting individuals 65+. This is a means to bridge the gap between specifically senior caregivers and the available and essential

Alberta Health Services

March is Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month. If you're 50 to 74 years of age, Alberta Health Services (AHS) is reminding you to get screened for colorectal cancer.

Colorectal cancer is one of the leading causes of cancer deaths in Alberta. Most cases of colorectal cancer are in people aged 50 and older with no family history.

Getting screened is easy with the Fecal Immunochemical Test, or FIT, that you can perform at home. It enables the lab to identify blood in your stool (poop) that you can't see on your own. If blood is found, you will need a colonoscopy to make sure the blood isn't caused by cancer.

There are two easy ways to get your free FIT kit in Alberta. Choose what works best for you.

- Option 1: Talk to your doctor or regular healthcare provider who will give you a form that you take to the lab to pick up your FIT kit.
- Option 2: Order your FIT kit online at screeningforlife.ca or call AHS Screening Programs toll-free at 1-866-727-3926. Your FIT kit will be mailed to you.

Once you complete your FIT, drop it off at the lab closest to you for testing. You'll receive your results in the mail within a few weeks or your healthcare provider will contact you if your results are abnormal. Talk to your healthcare provider if you have questions about your results or any next steps.

If you do not have a healthcare provider, such as a family doctor or nurse practitioner:

- Visit Alberta Find a Doctor.
- Call Health Link at 811.

Having regular colorectal cancer screening can prevent and detect cancer at its early stages when treatment is more effective. Ninety per cent of cases can be treated successfully when the cancer is found early.

Screening is for people who do not have symptoms. You should get screened, even if you feel healthy. Risk factors, such as personal or family history, may mean you should start

By Brandie Majeau

Smoky Lake embraced a spirited celebration of family and community engagement with a mix of indoor and outdoor activities, live musical performances, local food, vendors, and the essence of community spirit. The 2024 Family Day event drew 140 participants to share in the excitement and vivacity, a demonstration of solidarity for the Town of Smoky Lake.

In addition to the local vendors and their display of awe-inspiring goods, the market included a traditional Cabane a sucre (Sugar Shack) and the TELUS Hot Dog Stand with sales going to support the local food bank. The atmosphere was palpable, radiating an effervescent mood as live accordion and fiddler performances pierced the air. The melodies called to guests to mingle and move among the various activities, flitting between arts & crafts, a scavenger hunt, and a fun family day photo shoot. Guests could also pull up a chair and watch "Abominable", cozying up with friends and family to enjoy the show and share a bag of goodies.

The gaiety spilled outdoors where roaring fires beckoned to cozy up beside, or calls encouraged skates to be pulled on and laced tight, gliding in contentment, or playing in friendly competition. Children of all ages were encouraged to participate in the artistic endeavor of snow painting or challenging themselves to relay races. The day would not have been complete without the catering of Chris from the Ag complex canteen, featuring a variety of hot beverages and...a poutine bar.

The Town of Smoky Lake outdid itself with its spectacular display of community engagement and festivities. The event included a variety of surveys and feedback papers and included displays on program services, local initiatives, and volunteer sign-up opportunities. The celebrations of Family Day were overwhelmingly positive, the activities were enjoyable, there was a great deal of community support through local fundraising, and overall, it evoked a sense of unity.

Caregiver Workshops

resources they require, largely in rural areas where support may be limited. The commitment of the ambassador rests solely on the individuals themselves as they can vary their service to meet the needs of their own personal schedules. Simply sharing printed brochures or program postcards may be enough to reach a caregiver looking for support and knowledge that they are not alone.

Once accepted as a volunteer Senior Caregiver Ambassador, a commitment of approximately ten hours of training will be required, followed by monthly engagements that will be determined during orientation. Ambassador duties may be discussed as individuals share previous caregiving responsibilities and experiences, experience with public involvement in addition to levels of comfort with personable connections. There is no previous experience required to become a Senior Volunteer Ambassador, however self-reliant individuals with effective communication and people skills would be an asset.

As individuals consider such roles, their interest may stem from previous personal caregiver history. This is a key factor in the context of volunteering to become an ambassador. As previous caregivers become representatives for Caregivers Alberta, they can draw from personal history and understand the complexities and hardships that are endured, as well as feelings of hopelessness when unsure where to turn. They have built their abilities and resiliency and are able to offer a sympathetic approach based on first-hand experience. The Caregiver Ambassador program strives to offer a seniors-serving-seniors approach, a comforting hand ensuring senior caregivers that they are not alone. To join the Senior Caregiver Ambassador program contact office@caregiversalberta.ca.

Smoky Lake RCMP offers tips to reduce crime and stay safe this Canadian Agriculture Safety Week

March 10-16 is Canadian Agriculture Safety Week, a public awareness campaign focused on farm safety. The unique lifestyle of farmers and their families can lead to unique challenges when it comes to safety and crime prevention. This week, the Smoky Lake RCMP offers the following safety tips to help reduce crime and keep farmers safe:

Practice crime prevention through environmental design: Locking gates and out buildings, as well as installing extra lighting and security cameras, can make your property a less appealing target for criminals.

Secure your valuables: Store your tools and equipment in a safe location and make sure that your vehicles are locked and the keys are somewhere secure.

Be aware of potential fraud: Whether you're buying equipment online or looking into grants, always make sure you're communicating with a trusted source.

Practice safe equipment handling: Ensure all equipment and tools are in good operational condition so as to avoid any hazards or injuries.

Plan ahead: Make sure you have a supply kit and evacuation plan ready to go in the event of an emergency like a wildfire or tornado. If possible, plans should include transportation methods of livestock as well as a map with muster points and buildings with key services and equipment.

Share the road: Farmers operating oversized equipment on roadways should ensure loads are properly secured and that they are visible with lights and a reflective slow moving vehicle sign. Motorists should remain patient and keep a safe following distance from tractors or large machinery.

Join a Community Watch Group: Living on a farm offers a high level of privacy, but it also means being more isolated. Consider joining a community watch group, so you know what is going on in your community and can help keep your area safe.

Sign up for the Rave Mobile Safety notification system: Sign up with Rave to stay informed of traffic advisories, crime watch notifications, requests for public assistance, and more general public safety messaging. Visit www.rural-crimewatch.ab.ca/l/rave.

Report all crimes: The more we know about crimes in communities, even if they may seem small, can help us ensure we are allocating resources appropriately. For emergencies, call 911. Non-emergencies can be reported through a detachment's non-emergency line, by visiting your local detachment, or online.

SCHOOL NEWS

Redwater School

Last Wednesday, grade five and six students from Redwater School enjoyed an exciting tubing experience at Sunridge.

Thorhild Central School

In Thorhild Central School, grade four students recently explored the intriguing world of Labrador Tea, a plant native to the Canadian Shield and Boreal Regions of Alberta. Referred to as "Muskeg Tea" by Indigenous peoples, this tea is hand-harvested from regions with muskeg soil and is a popular winter beverage. As part of their educational journey, the students participated in Tea Friday, an event where they had the chance to taste freshly brewed "Muskeg Tea" paired with locally sourced honey. Among them, fourth-grade student Katie Murphy shared her thoughts, noting that it was the only tea she had enjoyed among all the varieties she had tried! The school community is delighted to witness students embracing and valuing the unique flavours and cultural significance of traditional teas.
