

Cowboy Poet captures western prairie nostalgia

By Brandie Majeau

Bryan (Bj) Smith is not just known in his current capacity as a Cowboy Poet; he is an incredibly versatile individual with a profound connection to the equestrian world.

Holding certifications as a riding coach from Equine Canada and the Certified Horse Association, his expertise goes far beyond coaching, encompassing horse training, packing, guiding, and survival skills. His extensive background in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police has included service in the Arctic and equipped him with a wealth of experience that he brought to his role as a supervisor for criminal investigations with the Government of Alberta. In addition to his professional endeavors, Bryan has contributed to education, having instructed for the Lethbridge College Criminal Justice and Environmental Science programs.

Furthermore, he has served as the President of the Lethbridge Therapeutic Riding Association, demonstrating his commitment to the community.

Bryan's deep-seated passion for wilderness travel has led him on a path through his leadership of groups on extensive horseback journeys through the Rockies, where he has showcased his exceptional packing and horsemanship skills.

Bj, in addition to his outdoor pursuits, is a captivating Western Entertainer. His cowboy poetry and performances at Cowboy Poetry Gatherings and Festivals across western Canada, the USA, and even on cruise liners, have left audiences spellbound.

As an author of three books and a frequent guest on radio and television shows, Bj's storytelling talent is undeniable.

With his distinctive mustache and charismatic demeanor, Bj embodies the spirit of a true cowboy, infusing his storytelling with genuine warmth and humor.

He is a remarkable Cowboy Poet who has answered his true calling to travel the province and capture the moments in time and history and present them to a crowd.

a lasting impression on the attendants as he took them on a humorous journey of stories. He also took them on a walk-through western prairie history as he recounted a time of rustic farming operations and a nostalgic vision of wagon loads crossing dirt roads to reach the towering grain elevators that once stood proudly as a beacon of western economy and success.

Prairie Giants

*They called them prairie giants standing tall beside the tracks
Their bins were full of barley, durum wheat or maybe flax
And on their sidesthe names of towns like Trochu,
Brooks or Taber
Irricana, Vegreville and more where farmers labour*

Each name displayed like billboards standing eighty five feet high

*To all who passed in cars or trucks or airplanes in the sky
And if the agent was your Dad or someone that you knew
You might ride up the man lift and then marvel at the view*

*'Cause from the window at the top the town spread at your feet
And all the people down below look tiny on the street
The office had a half a dozen chairs around the stove
Whose belly warmed the coffee pot and stories often wove*

Of teams of horses hitched to tanks that lumbered up the breeze

Then one by one the trucks arrived and progress put the squeeze

*On farmers who could make a living on a quarter section
Then bigger operations was an Aggies's sole obsession*

The farms grew larger by each year some spread from town to town

*Unneeded buyers at each point shut elevators down
The Railroad, not to be outdone, commenced to pull up rail
And now where prairie giants stood is but a ghostly tale*

*Alberta Wheat Pool, Alberta Pacific and the UGG
Have joined so many others that are now just history
Those soldiers of the prairies with their bottom flat side bins
Are monuments to progress, but progress has its' sins*

*So maybe while we march ahead it wouldn't hurt to pause
And give our precious prairie past a future with a cause
Let's save the country elevator from the wrecker's ball
So coming generations have a past they can recall.*

Smoky Lake welcomes new registry office

By Brandie Majeau

The Smoky Lake Registry Office, which had closed its doors in 2022, is now back in operation.

This is a welcome relief for the community, as the nearest location for registry services was approximately an hour away.

After a hiatus of nearly two years, registry services are once again available within the Town of Smoky Lake.

The Registries at Smoky Lake launched with a soft opening at the end of July 2024, offering basic services as they received official government training.

On September 14, they were proud to hold their official grand opening.

The grand opening was met with many congratulations from the community members who took the time to stop in and meet the staff and see the new office.

The staff has been hard at work and is looking forward to serving the Town of Smoky Lake.

They will be open Tuesdays through Fridays from 9 am to 5 pm and from 9 am until noon on the last Saturday of every month.

The Registries at Smoky Lake extends its heartfelt thanks to everyone who came by for their grand opening.

The overwhelming support and warm welcome from the community has been truly inspiring.

The support of the residents is what makes the work meaningful, and the staff look forward to becoming an integral part of the community.

Change to Consumers' Choice program regarding community newspapers

Canada Post respects Canadians' choice when it comes to receiving un-addressed advertising mail delivered by their postal service.

That's why our Consumers' Choice program offers a simple way for Canadians to stop receiving it.

Community newspapers are currently exempted from the Consumers' Choice program.

However, to respect Canadians' choice, we are updating our approach to the delivery of community newspapers that contain commercial inserts.

Effective January 8, 2024, community newspapers with commercial inserts or enclosures will no longer be delivered to addresses that are signed up for the Consumers' Choice program.

We will continue to deliver public interest materials to all addresses.

This includes community newspapers (and community newspapers with inserts of a public interest nature).

It also includes mailings from elected representatives, political parties, government departments and agencies at the federal, provincial, territorial and municipal levels, as well as band councils.

Visit canadapost.ca/consumerschoice to learn more. Consumers' Choice Acknowledgment Notice (33-086-558) will be updated to reflect this change.

The Lions Legacy Scholarship is a wonderful opportunity for young individuals in Alberta to receive recognition for their commitment to community service and academic achievement.

This joint venture between local Lions clubs and the Lions of Alberta Foundation offers up to $500 to match a similar amount provided by the local Lions Club.

The scholarship is aimed at students who live in each regional district, have graduated from Grade 12, or will graduate at the time of application, and have been accepted to a postsecondary institution for further education.

Applicants must commit to humanitarian causes by actively volunteering in their communities.

The scholarship places a strong emphasis on community service and seeks to reward those who embody the Lions' service-oriented philosophy.

Students are required to submit various items to their local Lions Club, including a student application form, a transcript of their most recent marks, confirmation of acceptance to a post-secondary institution, and letters of reference.

Additionally, applicants are asked to write a one-page letter expressing why they should receive the award.

Individual Lions Clubs may present multiple scholarships annually, with the Foundation grant limited to two per club per year.

This scholarship is a great opportunity for young individuals to be recognized for their dedication to serving their communities and achieving academic success.

Aurora will be fulfilling a childhood dream of living in Victoria while earning a Bachelor of Arts in the University of Victoria Climate Science Program.

(NC) Many Canadians take joy in the sight of big, fluffy snowflakes during winter. However, driving in winter isn't always so picturesque. Keep safe – and out of the snow-banks and ditches – with these tips from Co-operators:

Get your vehicle winter-ready

- Schedule a pre-winter tune-up to check that your battery, brakes and other essential systems are ready for winter driving.
 - Winter tires are well worth the investment. The deep treads and unique composition of winter tires provide up to 50 per cent better traction in cold temperatures. Better traction means better accident prevention – which is why some insurers will even discount insurance premiums when they're installed.
 - Ensure you can keep a clear view of the road by replacing old wiper blades that leave streaks. Before you head out, top up the windshield washer fluid (with de-icer in the -40°C range) and stow an extra jug in your vehicle.
 - Always carry a sturdy scraper and snow brush in your car. Be sure to clear your vehicle entirely of snow before driving to ensure you can see.
 - Pack emergency supplies to keep you warm and provide traction, as well as a shovel.
 - If you're an ATV-er or snow-mobiler, make sure that you are properly insured.
- It's easy and affordable to secure coverage that makes for happy

Winter driving

(and safer) trails.

Keep cool and in control

- Turn off cruise control when road conditions are wet, icy or snowy. You won't feel your wheels lose traction with your foot off the gas pedal.

- Always adjust your speed to road conditions.

- It takes longer to stop on snow and ice. Maintain space between other vehicles on the road.

- Slow and steady wins the race.

Accelerate smoothly, maintain steady pressure on the gas pedal, and brake gently and early to avoid skids.

There's no substitute for good judgement

- Be choosy where you drive. Major roads are plowed and salted more frequently, which can help you stay safe driving in snowy or icy conditions. And, because passersby are more likely, you'll be able to signal for help safely in the event of an accident.

- Be even choosier when you drive. Avoid driving in freezing rain or snow squalls. Wait for calmer weather and clear, salted roads whenever possible.

- Give yourself more time than usual when travelling, in case weather conditions worsen.

Winter weather can change quickly, so stay tuned to reports and pay attention to what's around you.

If the weather takes a turn for the worse, pull over somewhere safe for a cup of coffee or turn back home.

Police Officers pack a bagged lunch to school

By Brandie Majeau

H. A. Kostash has initiated a remarkable program called "Lunch with a Cop" as part of its elementary school activities.

The program was launched in the fall of 2023 with the aim of engaging with the youth in the school.

The concept was inspired by Coffee with a Cop, adapted to suit the younger audience.

Every month, officers bring their lunch and sit down with the kids to eat and chat.

This program

aspires to show the children that the police are there to help and support them.

Building strong, trusting relationships between law enforcement and the community is crucial for public safety and effective policing.

Police rely on community members to provide information about crime and collaborate on finding solutions to crime-related issues.

In the same way, the community's trust in the police is based on whether they believe that the police act in line with community values and incorporate principles of fairness and legitimacy.

The visibility of police in the community and their familiarity with residents are essential. Many people's interactions with the police are limited to callouts and law enforcement issues, leading to negative or uncertain perceptions of law enforcement and its officers. Encouraging non-enforcement interactions between police and community members helps reduce biases and stereotypes.

It also allows officers to understand who local residents are, breaking down barriers and creating positive relationships.

Engaging in these activities, such as stopping to say hello as someone walks to work, leading a local youth bike parade or having lunch with the elementary students at their school, is a great way for officers to connect with the community and build trust.

This approach helps dispel suspicions and encourages a sense of law enforcement and partnership between residents.

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

SCHOOL NEWS

Last week, the first graders at H.A. Kostash School in Smoky Lake embarked on an exciting outdoor adventure, exploring nature in search of signs of fall. The students eagerly observed the changing colors of the leaves, spotted squirrels gathering food, and felt the crisp autumn air. It was a hands-on learning experience that sparked curiosity and excitement about the new season. The adventure not only encouraged an appreciation for nature but also provided the students with an opportunity to connect with their surroundings and each other.

Last Friday, Ochre Park School in Redwater celebrated "Back to School" with the Owl Family at the Welcome Back Pancake Breakfast. The event was a great success, filled with fun and excitement. A special thank you went to the Grade four Leadership Team for their assistance in setting up, serving, and cleaning up afterward.
